Our Mission: To Teach, Love, Live and Learn as Jesus Did

Our Vision: Share Faith, Serve Others, Seek Knowledge

As a school community, during the month of April we will Set An Example in Peace. Peacefulness is an inner sense of calm. It comes especially in quiet moments of reflection or gratitude. It is getting very quiet and looking at things so you can understand them. Peacefulness is a way of approaching conflict with others so that no one is made wrong. It is being fair to others and yourself. Peace is giving up the love of power for the power of love. With peacefulness, everyone wins. "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God." Matthew 5:9 HOLY WEEK SCHEDULE

Rest in Peace Michelle Hittie, St. Charles Borromeo Principal 1995-2001!

"Michelle Hittie: Devoted to the soul of Catholic education!" (From Today' Catholic 4/2/19 by: Jeannie Ewing) It's no small feat in the modern era to achieve a true balance between family and work, managing the home, finances and children while trying to serve God with the gifts He has provided. Former Superintendent of Catholic Schools Michelle Hittie achieved and even excelled at that balance, however, humbly serving both her family and God until passing away on Wednesday, March 27, at the age of 78.

Born in Pittsburgh, Hittie attended both high school and college in Pennsylvania She completed a bachelor's degree in education in 1962, and after her first year of teaching, she decided to stay home and raise her children: William, Jr. ("Bud"), Mark, Craig, Carolyn and Sharon.

In 1980, she received a master of education degree from Indiana University-Purdue University Fort Wayne. She served at St. John the Baptist School, New Haven, as a fifth- through eighth-grade teacher from 1981 to 1986, then a junior high language arts teacher there from 1987 to 1990, afterward attaining her administrator's license from IPFW in 1990. She became principal at the school and remained in that capacity until 1994, when she lent her leadership to St. John the Baptist School in Fort Wayne for a year, and then to St. Charles Borromeo School in 1995. She received her highest accolade as an educator — that of superintendent of Catholic schools for the Diocese of Fort Wayne-South Bend — in 2001. She remained in the position until retirement in 2006.

According to Mary Schreiber, a friend and colleague for 30 years, Hittie died peacefully, surrounded by her family, a day after receiving last rites from Father William Sullivan of St. John the Baptist, New Haven. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at 10:30 a.m. Monday, April 1, at the church. She was buried at Highland Park Cemetery on Wallen Road in Fort Wayne.

Known for her dedication, loyalty and fidelity to both her faith and her family, Hittie also had a great impact on students, whom her family said, "drove her ambition and desire to work hard, do more, be more and achieve more."

"It was her faith that drove her to work for our Catholic School system," agreed Schreiber. "She believed in doing all for the Catholic identity that distinguishes us from the public-school system. Attending Mass and reciting the rosary was important to her growth in her relationship with God."

Mrs. Hittie was also well-known for her professionalism, organizational skills and preparation for whatever task she had to tackle. "She placed high expectations on everyone around her and believed we are all capable of achieving life's goals with dedication, hard work and focus," the family wrote. Schreiber described her as the "consummate professional" who was honest, but with a sense of humor, to everyone she led and that she did so with immense charity.

Hittie met with friends every third Tuesday of the month to pray for principals as they continued to lead the Catholic schools of the diocese, Schreiber added. "My life has been enriched by knowing Michelle. I will miss her dearly," said colleague and friend Carolyn Kirkendall, adding that although her parting leaves a hole in Catholic community of the diocese, her legacy remains indelibly etched into its history and into the lives of her loved ones.

She leaves behind a husband of 56 years, William "Bill" Hittie, two sisters, her five children and eight grandchildren."

ILEARN 2019- Students are required to have earbuds/headphones for testing.

ILEARN is Indiana's new online computer adaptive assessment designed to measure your child's proficiency of the Indiana Academic Standards in Grades 3–8, Biology and U.S. Government. ILEARN fulfills both state and federal legislative requirements as the accountability assessment for Indiana students.

What resources are available to help prepare my child for ILEARN?

- Indiana's Released Items Repository allows students to interact with released items and try some of the tools and features at: <https://www.doe.in.gov/assessment/ilearn-sample-items-and-scoring>
- Indiana's ILEARN Portal provides information and resources for understanding the assessment at: <https://ilearn.portal.airast.org/>
- The ILEARN for Families website answers questions about ILEARN at: <https://www.doe.in.gov/assessment/ilearn-families>

The State of Indiana has designated Monday, April 22 through Friday, May 17 as the ILEARN testing window. St. Charles plans to begin the tests on Tuesday, April 23, for students in grades 3 through 8. If students are not absent, testing should be completed by Friday, May 3. Make-up tests will be given to students who have been absent, but these are not in the best testing environment, as testing space and test administrators are not as readily available. Please help the students to be in school and on time. All testing will be online this year. Gr. 3, 5-8 students will be using their Chromebooks and Gr. 4 students will be using their iPads. Students are required to have earbuds/headphones for testing.

21 Catholic Quotes to Help You Finish Your Lenten Journey By Reanne Montpetit

So here are 21 quotes to help inspire you to continue to pray, fast, and persevere during these last days of Lent and beyond. If you gave up after a week, then this is a good time to start again, or even try something new. Don't give up, and walk with Jesus. I'm sure he'd appreciate your company. It's never too late to try again.

"Have patience with all things, but first of all with yourself." -St. Francis de Sales

"The Lord measures out perfection neither by the multitude nor the magnitude of our deeds, but by the manner in which we perform them." – St. John of the Cross

"You don't know how to pray? Put yourself in the presence of God, and as soon as you have said, 'Lord, I don't know how to pray!' you can be sure you've already begun." -Saint Josemaría Escrivá

"Lent is a time of going very deeply into ourselves... What is it that stands between us and God? Between us and our brothers and sisters? Between us and life, the life of the Spirit? Whatever it is, let us relentlessly tear it out, without a moment's hesitation."
-Catherine Doherty

"Unless there is a Good Friday in your life, there can be no Easter Sunday." -Ven. Fulton Sheen

"Lent is a fitting time for self-denial; we would do well to ask ourselves what we can give up in order to help and enrich others by our own poverty. Let us not forget that real poverty hurts: no self-denial is real without this dimension of penance. I distrust a charity that costs nothing and does not hurt." -Pope Francis

"There are ways of being crucified that do not involve rough wood or heavy nails, but a love beyond our capacity to love, which means a love that has been given to us by God..." -Catherine Doherty

"And he said to all: If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me" - Luke 9:23.

"Apart from the cross, there is no other ladder by which we may get to heaven." -St. Rose of Lima

"As Lent is the time for greater love, listen to Jesus' thirst...He knows your weakness. He wants only your love, wants only the chance to love you." – Blessed Teresa of Calcutta

"Show me your hands. Do they have scars from giving? Show me your feet. Are they wounded in service? Show me your heart. Have you left a place for divine love?" -Ven. Fulton Sheen

"Give something, however small, to the one in need. For it is not small to one who has nothing. Neither is it small to God, if we have given what we could." -St. Gregory Nazianzen

"Nothing, how little so ever it be, if it is suffered for God's sake, can pass without merit in the sight of God." -Thomas a Kempis

"The ultimate goal of fasting is to help each one of us to make a complete gift of self to God. ="Pope Benedict XVI

"...Although we may be able to do but little, the enemy nevertheless stands more in awe of those whom he knows can fast." –St. Francis de Sales

"The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness." -Lamentations 3:22-23

"(Lent) is a period of spiritual 'combat' which we must experience alongside Jesus, not with pride and presumption, but using the arms of faith: prayer, listening to the word of God and penance. In this way we will be able to celebrate Easter in truth, ready to renew the promises of our Baptism." -Pope Benedict XVI

"Fasting cleanses the soul, raises the mind, subjects one's flesh to the spirit, renders the heart contrite and humble, scatters the clouds of concupiscence, quenches the fire of lust, kindles the true light of chastity." -St. Thomas Aquinas

"Nothing great is ever achieved without much enduring." – St. Catherine of Siena

"You learn to speak by speaking, to study by studying, to run by running, to work by working, and just so, you learn to love by loving. All those who think to learn in any other way deceive themselves." -St. Francis de Sales

"God never tires of forgiving us; we are the ones who tire of seeking his mercy." -Pope Francis
